Dear All,

DARE hire a young-old man, you'll see, this is full happiness!

I reinvent myself and transmit my knowledge to young people every day, but also:

- ✓ I have more than 25 years of experience in managerial and operational activities (conceptualization, creation, management, improvement, optimization, training, consulting, support)
- ✓ I will not ask you for a sabbatical, I have already done my Pilgrimage to Compostela
- ✓ I will not ask you to finance my studies, I have already done my MBA
- ✓ No impromptu absence, I am no longer in charge of a young child, and I am in good health
- ✓ No risk of alarm clock failures, I only go out when I am not working the next day and still not every week
- ✓ I am not likely to have a problem with my girlfriend, I am happily single
- ✓ I know how to turn on a computer (yes, yes I assure you, I even excel at it) and master digital tools. I have better than a concealer, I have a family and friends who support me
- ✓ Multidisciplinary, benevolent, flexible with a great ability to adapt and endowed with great interpersonal skills, transparent and participative... I adapt to your needs and desires!
- ✓ I have a powerful motivation, a desire to pass on, to transform, of transition, to design, to manage... I'm your man in all situations!
- ✓ And above all, I am available and operational immediately, without notice period

You see, a professional totally dedicated to your cause and without constraint. Not a cost but a profitable investment... Let's collaborate and work together! Best regards,

Michel
